During her voyage between Calcutta and the Fiji Islands the cholers broke out on board, taking off twenty passengers and attacking a number of others. No new cases occurred from the Fiji Islands to this port. The steamer has been quarantined and fumigated to-day.

The Winner of the Laurel Crown. San Francisco, Aug. 28.- Lieut. Kuhule returned here last evening from Switzerland where he had defeated the crack shots of Europe and been awarded the laurel crown as king of the shooting festival of Zurich. He was given a cor-dial reception by his friends, who met him at the ferry and escorted him to town, headed by a band of music.

Metropolitan Matters. San Francisco, Aug. 28 .- De Molay and Roper Commanderies leave to-day by special train for their homes. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict yesterday in the Skerret murder case. charging William Leroy with the mur-der of Skerret. Quarantine Officer McAllister, will strictly examine all vessels arriving from Guaymas, Mexico, as reports have been received of the existence of yellow fever at that port.

James Dods, of Oakland, the embez

The English troops in Egypt will subscribe one day's pay.

Opium Fiends. NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—A successfu descent by Officer Hull was made on the premises at 98 Canal street, used, as the signboard says, by Hop Wah as a Chinese laundry. The officer found four Celestials reclining on dirty benches, two still indulging in their opium pipes. A white woman, almost nude, lay on the floor, stupefied by the opium, with a pipe by her side. The officer retreated to the open air for a fresh breeze and the assistance of another officer, and on returning arrested the Chinamen and women.

CHICAGO, August 28.—The Tribune New York special says: Disasters in On the heels of the failure o Pratt's Zenobia comes the possibility that Oscar Wilde's Vera will be with drawn to-morrow night from the boards of the Union Square Theater. Fifteen years ago this sturdy invalid was told by his physician that he must either die or give up the two daily lux urics of his life, strong coffee and cigars.

Mr. Bird meditated awhile and then remarked: "Well, if I've got to give up all the pleasures of life I might as well die at once." And he has continued to smoke cigars and drink coffee ever since.

A METHODIST pastor at Monticello, N. Y., has shown the courage of his convictions. A belf was wanted for the church, and the young people of the church gave a series of "sociables" at their homes, at which dancing was one of the amusements. By this means they raised fifty dollars, but the pastor refused to accept it on the ground that it was "raised in an ungodly way," the rules of the denomination being against dancing. Quite a breeze was raised, but at last accounts the pastor remained firm.

GEYSER BASIN, (via Livingston, Mont.,) Aug. 25.—At one o'clock today, after a dusty march of twenty-six miles over a rough trail, the presidential party arrived at the upper geyser of the National Park and went into camp near the Old Faithful geyser, which greeted us a few moments after dismounting with one of his hourly eruptions. All were very tired and hungry, and the exhibition that seemed specially made to greet the Chief Mag-strate could induce but few of our number to abandon luncheon and rush to a point for observing the display. This afternoon was devoted to resting, bath-ing and overhauling the outfit, and but ittle attention was paid to the geysers beyond those in the immediate vicinity of the camp. All are impressed with the wonderful surroundings, and to-morrow will no doubt prove a day of interest and pleasure. Of the curious freaks that nature exhibits in this section, the least said the better, for the Be whole park and all it contains has been often described. After the ride

On Sunday last the Unitarians dedito-day and led over a low range of mountains covered with pine forests. At intervals we found open grassy parks, but the most of them were only a few acres in area. About twelve miles out we came upon the lower falls of Lewis or Luke fork, a dark gray gorge cut through solid walls of volcanic rock, its sides being nearly perpendicular. About six hundred feet below us the stream rushed and twinkled over its dark bed, broken white by its fretting, at the upper falls. Some six miles from the lower, we saw them at a distance through an opening in the evergreen trees, and cated their new chapel to the service ence; because, "you know," San Diego has "no back country."
